

EPSM Logo and Trademark Policy for EPSM Members

Date: 21 December 2020

1. EPSM holds a German word trademark, registered at the official DPMA register with register number 305 78 116 and a Benelux word trademark registered at the official BOIP register with register number 818 428. The logo of EPSM is not officially registered, but standard copyright does apply.
2. Based on this background, EPSM grants a revocable right to all EPSM Members to use free of charge the enclosed EPSM logo and EPSM word trademark for their internal use, their online publications and in printed publications for the purpose to indicate and highlight their membership in EPSM.
3. This right cannot be transferred to other legal entities without permission of EPSM. In case a member behaves within or outside the association in a manner which damages the purposes or the reputation of the association, EPSM can withdraw this right for individual members at any time based on a decision of the EPSM board by e-mail to the EPSM member and with setting an appropriate notice period for ending the use of the EPSM logo and EPSM trademark.
4. Equivalent to the bylaws of EPSM for members, this policy is based on German law, especially German copyright and trad mark law does apply exclusively. Location for any potential legal disputes is Munich, Germany.
5. This Policy can be changed by a majority decision of the EPSM board, e.g. based on suggestions by EPSM members or other market participants, and followed by e-mail communication to all EPSM Members with a usual subsequent implementation period of 4 weeks.
